

Kentucky Association of Family and Consumer Sciences

Farm 2 School Tour

October 3, 2012

Do you have an interest in local food systems? Are you teaching youth about nutrition or the economic impact of agriculture in Kentucky?

Tour Good Shepherd Farm – producer of sheep milk cheese. Learn about the dairy operation, cheese production, and shearing of the animals. The farm is open for school and group tours.

Kentucky Market Pavilion will serve lunch and an opportunity to see an array of Kentucky Proud food and craft products

Receive a copy of the new Kentucky Farm 2 School curriculum and talk to Jackie Walters, R.D.; University of Kentucky Cooperative Extension Service
Tina Garland, Kentucky Department of Agriculture

Finish the day with a self-guided tour of Kentucky Proud agribusiness in Montgomery County

Cost: $15 per person for KAFCS Student Members

$20 per person/KAFCS Members

$25 per person/ Non Members

Registration Deadline: September 28th

Tentative Agenda

8:30 Registration opens at the Bath County Cooperative Extension office, Owingsville, Kentucky

9 am Consolidate into cars

9:15 Travel together to Good Shepherd Sheep Farm

9:30 Tour Good Shepherd Sheep Farm for a dairy, cheese and shearing tour.

11:45 Return to Bath County Extension office

Noon Lunch at Kentucky Pavilion

Learn about marketing of Kentucky Proud food and craft products

12:45 Farm 2 School Curriculums

Jackie Walters, UK Cooperative Extension Service

Tina Garland, Kentucky Department of Agriculture.

Participants will receive a hard copy of the new curriculum

2:00 Leave for self-guided Kentucky Proud Tour in Montgomery County.

KAFCS 2012 Fall Workshop Registration

Farm 2 School Tour
October 3, 2012

Name _____

Address _____

Organization/ Affiliation _____

KAFCS Student Unit Member $15 _____

KAFCS Member $20 _____

Non-member $25 _____

HUGS Sponsorship $30 _____

Donation to scholarship _____

Total enclosed _____

Send registration to: Pam Sigler
University of Kentucky
242 Scovell Hall
Lexington, Kentucky 40546-4702
psigler@uky.edu

Due September 28.

